

GEORGE STANLEY'S TRIAL BEGINS AT WINDSOR

Nothing New Has So Far Been Brought Out in the Trial for the Murder at Ellershouse—W. H. Christie, K. C., is Prosecuting and O'Mullin and Tremain Defending.

WINDSOR, May 29.—The supreme court opened at the court house in Windsor today at ten o'clock, Judge Townshend presiding. There are two cases, one the serious charge of murder. The man accused of the crime is George Stanley, the alleged murderer of Freeman Harvey of Ellershouse. The grand jury after being out 30 minutes found a true bill.

At noon the attorney-general commenced to address the jury. The prosecution is being conducted by W. M. Christie, K. C.

Before the morning session closed Rev. M. G. Henry, of St. Croix; John A. McCallum and Wesley Livingstone, of Windsor, were called. Mr. Henry testified as to the good character of Mr. Harvey, the murdered man. Messrs. McCallum, surveyor, and Livingstone, photographer, had made plans of the locality where the murder took place and photographs of the house. Both were laid before the court in evidence Tuesday afternoon. The first witness examined was Joseph Fisher. His evidence was substantially the same as given at the preliminary examination. The other witnesses examined on behalf of the crown were David Fisher, Dr. J. W. Reid, coroner; F. Knowles, of Avondale; John Bates, of Ellershouse; Arthur Sanford, James C. Spence, of St. Croix, and George Spence, Ellershouse. The latter was the late Freeman Harvey's next door neighbor, and the man who sat up with McCarthy all night drinking and talking horse trade, etc., on Friday night, the supposed night of the murder. J. C. O'Mullin, of Halifax, who is associated with H. B. Tremain, solicitor for the defence, cross-examined the witnesses, but nothing new was brought to light. George Spence was the last witness examined before the court adjourned.
